Department of Education
Schools Division of Pampanga

Subject: Letter of Intent to Offer Educational Field Trip Services

Dear Superintendent Alip,

Greetings of peace and excellence in education!

We at Expeditionary Ventures Tours and Services Corp., a duly registered and experienced travel and tour provider specializing in educational and experiential learning trips, would like to formally express our intent to offer our services to the schools under the jurisdiction of the Schools Division of Pampanga.

With over 10 years of dedicated service in organizing safe, meaningful, and Department of Education-compliant field trips, our agency is committed to supporting the holistic development of learners through hands-on experiences aligned with the K to 12 curriculum. We ensure strict adherence to all DepEd guidelines and safety protocols, and we take pride in our strong partnerships with accredited educational destinations, science and cultural institutions, and professional guides and facilitators.

We respectfully request your endorsement and approval to present our educational tour programs to public and private schools within the division. We are confident that our curated itineraries will contribute positively to the schools' co-curricular activities and help deepen students' understanding through real-world exposure.

Attached herewith are our company profile, sample itineraries, Department of Tourism accreditation, and safety compliance documents for your review.

We look forward to the opportunity of partnering with your division in promoting educational tourism that inspires curiosity, learning, and national pride.

Thank you very much for your kind consideration.

Respectfully yours,
Therese Jane Cancio
President
EV Tours
