To: Assistant Schools Division Superintendents
Chief Education Supervisors
Public Schools District Supervisors
Division GSP Coordinator
All School Heads
GSP Troup Leaders/Co-leaders
All Others Concerned

1. The Girl Scouts of the Philippines, Pampanga Council will conduct the 30th PROVINCIAL CAMP on February 02-06, 2026 at Potrero Elementary School Main, Bacolor, Pampanga. The theme for this year's event is, "Disconnect to Reconnect: A Camping Retreat!", to help girls secure their identity, to speak the truth and to be strong enough to overcome adversity and discrimination.
2. The participants of the activity are the following:
 - 50 Junior Girl Scouts per District
 - 10 Troop Leaders per District
3. The fee for this camp is P500.00 per participant. Enclosed, please find the camp application, parent's consent, and health forms.
4. This camp will be a meaningful opportunity for our girl scouts to experience outdoor activities as they will be exposed in the camp on the 8 – Point Challenge. In addition, social skills will make them bloom to their potential as young leaders with the right attitude, values and virtues – for camping together is life!
5. All Public Schools District Supervisors are requested to confirm the total number of participants on or before January 20, 2026, using this link: <https://url-shortener.me/7C4R>. Your leadership initiatives to support the girls who will join the camp with an expected total of 1500 strong contingents is enjoined.
6. Kindly coordinate with the GSP Council Executive, Hiza H. Malonzo, thru CP# 09982664648 or messenger account name Hiza Henson and GSP Division Coordinator, Mam Dorotea D. Soliman for other details.
7. School Heads through the GSP troop leaders are advised to screen the girl participants and be given the needed preparation.
