3. School Heads are enjoined to allow, support, and facilitate the participation of their personnel who are included in the official list of players, subject to the training schedule indicated in the Training Matrix. Such participation shall be recognized as part of the Division's NEU official sports and wellness activities.

4. The participation of the concerned personnel in the training activities indicated in the Training Matrix shall be on official time. This Memorandum serves as the official Travel Authority for the concerned players to attend the scheduled training sessions and other related official activities.

5. All officially selected players are expected to:
a) Attend all scheduled training sessions as indicated in the Training Matrix;
b) Observe proper conduct, discipline, and sportsmanship at all times;
c) Comply with safety, health, and administrative requirements of the Division; and
